On September 26, 2007, at approximately 1:00PM, the victim was robbed at gunpoint while mowing the lawn at a nearby business. The victim, who owns a lawn service company, had just parked his truck and was about to remove his lawn equipment from his trailer when he was approached by a two black male suspects. The first suspect approached the victim and asked him if he cut residential lawns. The victim told him no. The suspect then told the victim that his mothers yard needed to be cut. The victim again told the suspect that he cuts only commercial lots. The suspect pulled a black handgun from his waistband, pointed it at the victim, and demanded the keys to his truck. The victim then tossed his keys to the second black male suspect who was standing close by. The first suspect then ordered the victim to walk to a nearby dumpster and told him to dig in the dumpster. Meanwhile, the second suspect entered the victims truck and fled the scene in the victims white pickup truck. Several seconds later, a gray Pontiac with tinted windows driven by a third black male suspect pulled up to the scene. The first suspect entered the passenger seat and started to leave. When the victim attempted to get a license plate on the suspect's vehicle, he was fired upon by the first suspect.

Later the same day, HPD officer responded to a vehicle fire at 6000 England and found the victim's car had been set on fire by the suspects. The victims trailer and lawn equipment were not located and presumed to be stolen. The victim's truck was totaled as a result of the fire.
